

Stance.
My Stance
is that most kids
are looking for a role-model to trust almost and also how kids
look for heroes.
Some people
look for rolemodels
but they should look for every day people.

Beginning way
The fact that kids are still looking for rolemodels.

Middle
The middle is about ~~how kids look~~
what most kids
should look for in rolemodels.

Ending
The ending is about
is how kids look for big people like music stars and so on but they should
look for coaches,
parents and teachers
really.
