

Daniella

Have you ever met someone and after talking with them you felt like you met your rolemodel? Did you ever think that the person that your sitting next to at dinner could be your rolemodel? The one who helps you with your ^{math} homework after your teacher spacifically said "Do this math homework on your own no help!" Or maybe your rolemodel is the coach you love to death, but everyone else thinks that he stinks? You're probably wondering "hey whats with these questions?" Well most kids are still looking for a good rolemodel. Someone who cares about being a good role model for kids. Daniella ~~she~~ ^{Someone} ~~a friend of mine who~~ ^{who} goes to manhattan New ~~Street~~ ^{school}. I've ^{has} had a bad experiance with a bad rolemodel. Brittany Spears. ~~She~~ ^{she} used to love her so much that I'm str sure that if ~~she~~ ^{she} kept off liking her, ^{her mom} ~~my~~ ^{she} would have gotten sick of ~~her~~ ^{her} begging ^{and} ~~she~~ ^{she} would have bought the CD. The reason ^{you} ~~she~~ ^I ~~doesn't~~ ^{shouldn't} like Brittany Spears is obvious for me," says Daniella. "She is a a bad rolemodel for kids ~~and~~, She ~~strips~~ ^{strips} takes most of her clothes off on stage, and she tells girls that in order to be seccessfull they have to wear little or no clothes." Daniella first realized this ~~what~~ when one Saturday in august, ~~three~~ six days ~~away~~ after from her birthday she was working with her mom on math. Daniella was afraid of bees at that time so she kepted getting up from my her seat. "I couldn't help it, I kepted getting up and moving away from the bees no matter what my mom ~~sub~~ would say." Then Daniella's sister, ~~related~~ called her in because Britany Spears was on tv.. "I thought: it was something good but I knew as soon as I saw it I was in shock at ~~what~~ what I saw which was Britany Spears with almost nothing on." "It was on my mind all the time but finally I got on with life and decided to just move on." Its been a year since Daniella has hummed ~~existed~~ or sang any Britany Spears songs she doesn't even think about her that much.

Do all rolemodels have to be rockstars?
~~That is not~~ The answer to that is no because rockstars and movie stars and others at sometime ~~some~~ have disappoint you (like Britany Spears). Christina Wishing ^{who goes to} at Daniella's Y M C A says that "the best role model is someone who cares about being a good rolemodel for kids," like her-self she says.

"My rolemodel is my second coach called Robert." My role model is Rob also because he helps me get better ^{at} my strokes and he doesn't cures or say or do bad things." Says Daniella, Christina's friend. Not every one thinks that^{though}. They think he is crazy and mean.

The one thing kids should remember is when your looking for a good rolemodel look for someone they know and love not someone they dont know and are famous. Its not a crime to flip backwards over the Backstreet Boys, or clap and sing along with Christina Aguilera when she is on the radio but from what Daniella has experianced and ~~take~~ from what Christina believes, they both recommend ~~pe~~ every day people they love and know.
