

People grow out of things really fast especially me. I used to love my Legos so much sometimes it was hard to stop playing with them but now I don't even think about them. This show That you grow and your interests change. The few times that I think about my Legos or my pillow are definitely not to play with them but to think about the good times I had, to ~~keep~~ be thankful that I had them then and to keep the fond memories long after you toss the things.

Jonathan gathering more on his topic after organizing his ideas.