

1 When I walk by a homeless person, 2 I don't see a homeless person, I see 3 an empty stomach. When I walk by 4 a homeless person that is smoking, I 5 think if they can afford a box of 6 cigarettes then they can afford some 7 fruit or some bread. One time when 8 I was in Israel, I gave a homeless man 4 shekels ($1.00). He could buy a whole box of bread and save himself, or buy cigarettes and get sick and maybe even die. If I were homeless, then I would definitely choose to buy some bread or something to eat. In my Jewish religion I'm not supposed to eat from breakfast until dinner on Yom Kippur.
For the first time this year, I will do it and I will be hungry for a long time.
Sometimes when I am hungry I wish a store would just pop up in front of me. I think that is how a homeless person feels and I feel sorry for them. If I were rich I would give $1.00 to every homeless person I see. I would be giving away a lot of money because there are a lot of homeless people, and that makes me very sad.
