

What I'm Trying To Say

I am happy about my new room but I will probably miss the old times with my sister and might be lonely.

How I'm going to say it:

It's not just a room of things, it's a room of memories.
Lead

Notes to support my piece:

- When I was 2 we moved - what we did when I was 2
- Now I'm ten - all the things we do now
- My sister is 13 and is tired of sharing a room.
- Plans for the new room - computer, carpet, shelves.
-

I will probably like the room, but I will still be lonely.
Ending

Lists
Comparisons
Craft

More detail about the games we play
Craft

Use Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers
Craft

Suzannah's flowchart to organize her thinking for her draft.