

Children benefit when their families have varied opportunities to connect with the classroom teacher and school teams. Record the information from the Family Involvement Questionnaire on this form and use it to plan for a variety of types of experiences.

[illegible]