

Event Notes

Name: _____

Date: _____ Period: _____

Directions Use the organizer below to analyze a particular event in a film, story, or historical event. The point is to analyze the role each person plays and the effect of the event on those involved. Fill in each box with quotations, examples, details, and observations about the person involved. Write the paragraph at the bottom when you finish your notes.

Target [Someone/Group who is the focus of the mistreatment]	Perpetrator(s) [Someone/Group who says or does something against another person or group]
Bystander(s) [People who witness event but do or say nothing to prevent it]	Ally/Allies [Someone who speaks out or acts on behalf of the target]

Follow Up: Use the notes above to write a paragraph in which you make a statement about who did what to whom and why. Use examples from the text and your notes to support and illustrate your ideas. Here is a sample argument:

Frank betrayed Ahmed because he resented his success and status.
