

Sample Positions

- Vampire bats are dangerous to cattle.
- Farmers should have a right to catch and kill all the vampire bats they can.
- Vampire bats are important to research.
- Vampire bats contribute to the local ecology.
- People don't know much about vampire bats.
- The natural habitat of vampire bats is being destroyed.
- The presence of naturally occurring species within Panama makes cattle herding inappropriate for the environment.
- Killing vampire bats is cruel.
- Vampire bats might turn out to be important to people.