

Question for the Author: Why did you decide to have Muna to turn on Fukiji?

Self-Selected Vocabulary (new/unfamiliar/interesting/unusual)

Vocabulary Word	Definition
spurned	scorned

Response Options (One of your own choice and one from the list below)

It's hard to believe.../This is similar to.../My favorite part is when.../The part about _____ reminds me of.../I can relate to this chapter because.../I would change.../The part that makes a picture in my mind is.../I wonder.../If I had been there, I would have.../I can relate to this story because...

Pg#	Text Quote	Response/Reaction/Connection
97	"Surely he could find a hiding place among their thick woods, a deserted temple, perhaps, or a shrine that pilgrims had forgotten."	I think this quote by Muna is really childish. He thinks he can just run away from his problems by fleeing to some deserted temple, well he can't.
100	"...the Gen Shrine. Not being religious, he could scarcely identify any of the lesser temples by name. He strained for some sign he could recognize..."	This reminds me of the time my friend went to church with me. He had no idea what was going on with the different religious things, like Muna here.

Prediction: I predict Muna will go back to Fukiji.