

Written Discussion Rules

1. Use your best handwriting, so people can read what you are saying.
2. Use all the time I give you for writing. No fair writing a couple of words and putting down your pen.
3. Don't talk, even when passing notes to each other. We want to keep all the energy in the writing.