

Narrative Organizer

Although this is a descriptive poem, it also lays out a story or narrative of what the train does. Use this organizer to jot down what Dickinson sees the train do on its path to “its own stable door.” You’ll note that there are 10 plot boxes, but you may see the poem as not having that many steps in its journey.

