DIGITAL LITERACY LESSON PLANNING

QUESTIONS TO CONSIDER

- What resources will students need to interact with?
- What strategies and skills do students have now?
- What strategies and skills do they need in order to be successful with this resource(s)?
- How can you break that down for students in a visible way?
- Which lessons would be for all students? Which for some students? Which for a few students?
- Which lessons might transfer to this digital medium to help students? What new lessons might you need to teach?
DIGITAL LITERACY LESSON PLANNING

What?
What is the learning target? What skill should students be able to do as a result of this lesson?

Why?
Why is this skill important? How will this benefit your students?

How?
How will you structure this lesson?

What to Look For
How will you know students have achieved the goal?

Teaching Language
Plan a few phrases that you might use as you teach or confer. When thinking about conferring, anticipate challenges students might have with the work and what you might say or do to help them overcome those challenges.
