Title: __________________________________________________________________

Page _____ to page _____

While you are reading today, complete #1:

1. On the back of the page, share your thinking about what you read. You may want to tell about a confusing part and then try to ask a question that will isolate the confusion. Maybe you want to ask a question about something that you are just curious about. Share a line that strikes you or a personal connection that you make to the reading. Feel free to give your opinion or your assessment of the reading material. Your response should be at least five sentences long.

Before the class ends, spend five to ten minutes jotting down what you remember about today's reading. Try to write something that will jog your memory and help you remember where you left off. Stretch yourself to write more than you did the last time you did this sheet.
